FLAG STATE INSPECTORS CANCELLED DUE TO NON-PARTICIPATION IN THE ANNUAL SEMINAR

No: MMN-10/2026

---

1. The purpose of this Marine Notice is to inform all parties concerned that those previously designated as Panama Flag State Inspectors, whose designation was cancelled due to non-participation in previous Annual Seminar, will be subject to review by an extraordinary Technical Committee for the purpose of considering their reinstatement.
2. Based on the above, applicants shall submit the complete documentation required for a new application, including the mandatory training certificates and any updated training that may constitute an added value to the Administration (e.g., recent amendments to relevant conventions, new regulatory requirements, among others).
3. All interested applicants shall comply with the following requirements, which will be evaluated for the purpose of reinstatement:
  - Not having been subject to Weak Points during previous term as Flag Safety Inspector;
  - Having obtained a passing score (minimum 71%) in previous Annual Performance Evaluations;
  - Not having been subject to warning letters or formal notices of concern.
4. Applications shall be submitted no later than May 15, 2026, to the following email address: asi@amp.gob.pa. After the established deadline, no documentation shall be accepted, and applicants who fail to submit their complete application within the prescribed period shall not be considered for reinstatement.

April, 2026 – New.
